

Finding Joy in Every Assignment

Resources & Networking
For TOCs
Nov. 23/11

Welcome from Your Presenters

Peer to Peer Support Consultants (P2P)

Mary Filleul (K-12)

778-229-9578

mfilleul@vsb.bc.ca

Jacob Martens (Secondary)

778-228-1997

jmartens@vsb.bc.ca

Agenda Overview

1. Warming Up
2. Resources You'll Want
3. Challenging Classes
4. Getting Physical
5. Closing
6. Evaluations/Feedback

Warm Up

Look around & make eye contact with someone you don't know

Join that person & ask them:

“When did you first realize you were going to be a teacher?”

Resources You'll Want

www.priceless-teaching-strategies.com

www.bctf.ca/TeachersOnCall

(Handbook for New Teachers)

Fancy Footwear

Please line up according to the elaborateness of your footwear – fanciest at the door and more modest near the window

Challenging Classes

Challenging Classes

Describe your most challenging classroom scenario as a TOC so far

OR

Describe your greatest classroom fear as you work as a TOC

Ask for feedback from your group and choose one to share out to the whole group

Physical Fitness

How do you build in movement (without chaos)
with students you don't know?

www.mrgym.com

Closing Off This Session

Share one thought, moment or thing that has brought you joy in teaching.

Thanks and...

- We appreciate your active participation.
- Please complete a feedback form.
- Let us know how you what you would like for follow up.

